THE RIVERSIDE AFRICAN AMERICAN HISTORICAL SOCIETY

presents a talk by

PROFESSOR LEWIS V. BALDWIN

entitled

"REFLECTIONS ON MALCOLM X AND THE BLACK NATIONALIST TRADITION: A STUDY IN IRONY".

Lewis Baldwin, Professor of Religious Studies at Vanderbilt University, is the author of several books on Martin Luther King, Jr. (among them, There is a Balm in Gilead and To Make the Wounded Whole), and a forthcoming volume on Malcolm X. He holds a PhD from Northwestern University and, before moving to Vanderbilt, taught at Wooster College, Colgate University, and Crozer Theological Seminary.

SUNDAY, MAY 20, 2007

3:00 PM

at the

Riverside Metropolitan Museum

3580 Mission Inn Avenue

Riverside, California

(951) 826-5273

Brief commentary to follow by

PROFESSOR DAVID DENNARD

Introductions by Sterling Stuckey,

UCR Distinguished Professor Emeritus

Light refreshment will be served.

Seating is limited. Please RSVP

by Monday, May 14, 2007

by calling Mrs. Alicia Lee at (951) 789-0986.

David Dennard is Professor of History and Director of the Institute for Historical and Cultural Research at East Carolina University, Greenville, NC.

This event is open to the public and is sponsored by The Riverside African American Historical Society.