DATE 10-31-08	TYPE OF REPORT 69 PC	REPORTING OFFICER Bonome
------------------	-------------------------	-----------------------------

ASSIGNMENT:

I responded to the listed area ref. Officers requesting additional units for crowd control.

NARRATIVE:

Upon arrival there was a large crowd of onlookers gathering. The suspect was being treated by medical personnel and there was 2 Hispanic females that were yelling at the Officers on scene. The females were related to the suspect and tried to push past the Officers towards the suspect. I told them to get back and let the paramedics do their job. The crowd moved back and the family members agreed to go back into their residence.

INVESTIGATIVE ACTIONS:

I placed crime scene tape around the area and contacted people for potential witnesses. I spoke to w1/Gabaldon who said the following.

STATEMENTS:

W1/Gabaldon said that before the Officers arrived on scene he saw the suspect standing in the middle of Cypress Ave. The suspect was screaming at the cars that drove by and several cars had to swerve around him. w1 does not know what the suspect was yelling. w1 said he walked back to his apt. before the Officers arrived and did not see what occurred.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION:

I remained at the location to provide scene security until Sgt. Blomdahl requested that I drive the 2 involved Officers back to Magnolia St. I drove Officers Ratkovich and Koehler to Magnolia. I remained with them until relieved by Detectives.
