On 09/13/13 at approximately 2108 hours, Probation Officer Decoudres and I were on routine patrol as members of the Police and Correction Team (PACT.) While driving eastbound on University Av., just west of Lime St., we heard C230 over channel 1 say, "shots fired." Due to our proximity to the call, Officer Decoudres and I continued driving eastbound on University Av., and arrived on-scene quickly. Upon arrival, Officer Decoudres and I established the crime scene; along the north end of the residence by placing crime scene tape from the east curb-line of Sedgewick Av. to the west side of the street by the alley way. At approximately 2350 hours, Officer Decoudres and I were relieved by Officer Hychko and were cleared from the scene by Wilson.
