Narrative

On 2/29/12, I was contacted by Mike Bumcrot who is an investigator with the Riverside Community Police Review Commission (CPRC). He was contacted by Nicholas Ron, who is a member of the Ledesma family. Ron told him that he had a piece of evidence that was not collected by police after the shooting.

Bumcrot told me that he met with Ron at his residence. He said Ron gave him a piece of PVC pipe. Ron told him that the pipe was evidence in the shooting, and was not recovered by police that night.

I met with Bumcrot at a Starbucks parking lot at Hidden Valley Parkway and the 15 Freeway. I took possession of the PVC pipe from Bumcrot and later booked it into evidence at the Magnolia Station as "Found property".

During the initial investigation of this shooting, a piece of PVC pipe was photographed and documented by detectives. It was determined that the PVC pipe photographed at the scene, was not involved in the shooting and was not collected as evidence.

It is not known if the piece of PVC pipe given to Bumcrot by Ron is the same piece of PVC pipe at the original crime scene.

No further.
