62. Narrative of Supplemental Report

On 11-22-13 at approximately 2327 hours, I heard A137 (Officer Hunt) broadcast that he was at 1st and Vine and "shots fired". I responded to the scene and saw a tan colored four door vehicle parked on the property at 3020 E. La Cadena Dr, facing northbound. There were already several officers on scene. Several police vehicles were parked behind the suspect vehicle and several police vehicles were parked in the street to the west of the suspect vehicle with officers behind both sets of vehicles.

From the radio traffic, I knew that the passenger in the vehicle may have been shot and there was also a driver in the vehicle. I also knew, from a conversation with Sergeant Cash that the occupants of the vehicle had fired at Officer Hunt.

I directed the officers near the units to the south of the suspect vehicle to conduct a high-risk vehicle stop to extract the occupants. From my position (south of the suspect vehicle), I could see the front passenger door was open and a male was kneeling on the ground facing the vehicle. His upper body was hidden from view inside the car. A male that was seated in the driver's seat was detained as well as a female that was seated in the passenger seat behind the driver. Announcements were made to any other occupants to the vehicle with no response. Officer Feimer deployed his K-9 and an arrest team was sent to take the passenger into custody.

1 I then directed officers to begin contacting the residents of all of the houses in the immediate area in an attempt to
2 locate any witnesses to the incident. I asked Officers Meier and Blevins to check the area to the east of the 3 suspect vehicle for anyone who may have been struck by gunfire. I asked Officers Shourds and Leyva and Officer
4 Espinoza to transport the driver and female passenger to Magnolia Station (see Supplemental Reports for details).
5
6 I was then relieved from the scene by Sergeant Cash.
