At 0717 hours this morning I heard an emergency radio broadcast from a Detective requesting emergency assistance (11-99) and that shots had been fired. Dispatch confirmed the location as the Tyler Springs Apartment Complex located at 10406 Indiana Ave., Riverside, Ca. I responded from the Family Justice Center in Downtown Riverside.

I am an Emergency Negotiations Team (ENT) supervisor and therefore I coordinated the response of the other team members to the scene. The ENT Command Post was established at the west end of the complex. At about 0845 hours I advised the Incident Command Post that ENT was prepared to begin the negotiations process when they were ready for us.

The following ENT personnel were present: Officer R. Morris (Primary Negotiator), Officer J. Sturdavant (Secondary Negotiator), Officer W. Rodriguez (SWAT Liaison), Officer D. Cisneros (Intel), Detective P. Young (Intel), and Officer T. Banks (Scribe).

We secured our equipment when it was determined negotiations were not necessary and cleared the scene shortly thereafter.

I took no further action.
