2. Carlos is the adult son of Margaret Barringer ("Margaret"), who also lives at the same address.<sup>2</sup>
3. Margaret was hosting a barbeque that began at about 2:00 or 3:00 p.m.<sup>3</sup>
4. Officer James Heiting was working uniformed patrol, assigned to a 2-officer car with partner Officer Juan Munoz.<sup>4</sup>
5. Jennifer Barringer ("Jennifer"), who attended the barbeque and is an aunt of Carlos, said Carlos was facing 3 to 5 years of federal prison for an immigration smuggling offense, and was to turn himself in October.<sup>5</sup>
6. Jennifer said that Carlos lost his job because of the arrest.<sup>6</sup>
7. Maria Quinones ("Maria") is an aunt of Carlos.<sup>7</sup>
8. At some point around 7:00-8:00 p.m., Maria was at the barbeque and she saw Carlos drinking shots of tequila, and beer.<sup>8</sup>
9. Shannon Manier was also present at the barbeque and saw Carlos drink a couple of shots of tequila.<sup>9</sup>
10. Carlos has a son named Eddie.<sup>10</sup>
11. At some point later in the evening, Maria saw Eddie come into the kitchen and state that he had been hit by Carlos.<sup>11</sup>
12. Maria then saw Carlos come into the kitchen and again try to hit Eddie.<sup>12</sup>
13. Maria tried to get Carlos away from Eddie, and Carlos pushed Maria, knocking her eyeglasses to the floor, breaking them.<sup>13</sup>
14. Maria's son, Jorge Serna ("Jorge"), was also at the barbeque, and Jorge heard women screaming and then Maria saying, "my glasses, my glasses," and "no, no, Carlos, no, no."<sup>14</sup>
15. The RPD Dispatch information ("CAD") indicated that a neighbor called to report sounds of a male and female screaming at 1956 (7:56 p.m.) hours.<sup>15</sup>
16. A second call was received at 1959 reporting that a female was screaming that she needed an ambulance.<sup>16</sup>
17. A third call reported that a female victim was down inside the house, and that sounds of a disturbance ("415") could be heard inside.<sup>17</sup>

---

* First names have been used because several referenced persons are family members with the same last name.

18. Ofcr. Heiting heard a radio call of a family disturbance on the west end, and because he was closer than the assigned units, he advised Dispatch that he and Ofcr. Munoz would respond.<sup>18</sup>
19. CAD information showed that Ofcrs. Heiting and Munoz were placed on the call at 2008 hours.
20. Maria said Carlos cursed at her repeatedly, and that he was angry.<sup>19</sup>
21. Maria believed Carlos to be drunk on tequila because he previously had acted similarly violently when drunk on tequila.<sup>20</sup>
22. Maria said a neighbor came over to the house and talked Carlos into leaving.<sup>21</sup>
23. Thomas Castro ("Thomas Sr.") identified himself as a neighbor and long-time acquaintance with Margaret.<sup>22</sup>
24. Thomas Sr. heard a disturbance at Margaret's house around 8:00 p.m.<sup>23</sup>

26. Jennifer returned sometime after 8:00 with Nicholas Ron ("Nicholas").<sup>25</sup>
27. Nicholas said that as soon as he arrived and walked up to talk with Carlos, Carlos "sucker punched" Nicholas in the head for no reason.<sup>26</sup>
28. Nicholas and Jennifer then left the barbeque.<sup>27</sup>
29. Thomas Sr. and his wife Lupe then went to Margaret's home to see if they could help.<sup>28</sup>
30. Lupe Castro ("Lupe"), a neighbor and close acquaintance of Margaret, heard the disturbance and ran over to help, believing it was due to an on-going dispute between Margaret's daughters.<sup>29</sup>
31. Thomas Castro Jr. ("Thomas Jr.") also heard the disturbance and went to Margaret's home to help.<sup>30</sup>
32. Anonymous witness ("Anon"), a neighbor, heard a disturbance at Margaret's home.<sup>31</sup>

34. Christopher Castro ("Christopher") went with several members of his family to the Barringer residence.<sup>33</sup>
35. Lupe went into the house, and saw Carlos' daughter Carlene on the kitchen floor screaming for help because of pain to her stomach.<sup>34</sup>
36. Ofcr. Heiting and Ofcr. Munoz parked their car on Yarborough about 5 houses south of 5807, and walked toward the residence.<sup>35</sup>
37. CAD showed Ofcrs. Heiting and Munoz advised of their arrival at 2014 hours.<sup>36</sup>
38. Ofcr. Munoz said he saw Fire Department vehicles staging nearby, awaiting a signal from officers to drive in.

39. At Margaret's, Thomas Sr. saw that Carlos was arguing loudly with others.<sup>37</sup>

41. Christopher saw that Carlos was angry and wanted to go fight someone in the house.<sup>39</sup>
42. Ofcr Heiting said as they approached the residence of the call, he heard yelling and loud talking.<sup>40</sup>
43. Ofcr. Munoz said he could hear a commotion as he was approaching the house.<sup>41</sup>
44. Ofcr. Heiting pulled out his taser with flashlight as less-lethal cover, and he believed Ofcr. Munoz had the responsibility of lethal cover.<sup>42</sup>
45. Thomas Sr. was able to talk Carlos into leaving.<sup>43</sup>
46. Lupe said she and her family were able to calm Carlos and persuade him to leave.<sup>44</sup>
47. As Carlos was leaving the garage, Thomas Sr. saw him grab what appeared to be a tent bag about 3 feet long.<sup>45</sup>
48. Maria saw Carlos grab a bag he was leaving.<sup>46</sup>
49. Maria said the bag looked like a gym bag, and was 2-3 feet long.<sup>47</sup>
50. Anon saw Carlos take a blue bag from rafters above the garage door.<sup>48</sup>
51. In the garage, Thomas Jr. saw Carlos grab a bag from a space above the garage door that appeared to be for a fold-up chair.<sup>49</sup>

64. Christopher saw that as Carlos walked down the driveway and almost reached the street, two uniformed police officers were approaching.<sup>62</sup>
65. Ofcr. Heiting said a Hispanic male and female were walking down the driveway, arguing with someone inside the garage.<sup>63</sup>
66. Ofcr. Munoz said one man and one woman walked away from the group of people at the garage door, and continue down the driveway to the gutter.<sup>64</sup>
67. Ofcr. Munoz also saw that a heavy set male, bald with tattoos, remained near the group of people around the garage door, and that the male was confronting Munoz, and shouting at him.<sup>65</sup>
68. Ofcr. Munoz said the male asked who they were, and he replied that they were the police.<sup>66</sup>
69. Ofcr. Heiting said he approached the two and said, "Can you come over here to the curb," and "let me see your hands."<sup>67</sup>
70. Ofcr. Munoz turned his attention to Ofcr. Heiting, who he heard giving commands to the male and female near the gutter, and Munoz heard the male being confrontational with Heiting.<sup>68</sup>
71. Jorge heard an officer say, "well stop right there," and/or "whoa, whoa, whoa, hold on there."<sup>69</sup>

81. Christopher said Carlos was around 25-30 feet from the officers.<sup>79</sup>
82. Ofcr. Heiting said when he first gave commands he was 30 feet from the male subject.<sup>80</sup>

83. Lupe said the officers were not far from Carlos.<sup>81</sup>
84. Ofcr. Heiting saw that the male was carrying what appeared to be an umbrella cover.<sup>82</sup>
85. Ofcr. Munoz said the male was carrying what appeared to be a nylon beach umbrella carrying case.<sup>83</sup>
86. Jorge saw Carlos pull out a gun.<sup>84</sup>
87. Thomas saw Carlos pull a shotgun out of the bag he was carrying.<sup>85</sup>
88. Maria also saw Carlos take a rifle out of the bag.<sup>86</sup>
89. Thomas Jr. saw Carlos pull a shotgun out of the bag.<sup>87</sup>
90. Anon saw Carlos pull a gun from the bag.<sup>88</sup>
91. Ofcr. Heiting saw the male reach with his left hand and pull downward, and at the same time Heiting heard the sound of vinyl.<sup>89</sup>

93. Ofcr. Heiting saw the male was holding a black shotgun.<sup>91</sup>
94. Ofcr. Munoz saw the male was holding a rifle with a pistol grip.<sup>92</sup>
95. Ofcr. Munoz told the male to drop the gun, and Munoz saw and heard the male chamber a round into it, and Munoz realized the weapon was a shotgun.<sup>93</sup>
96. Lupe saw Carlos raise the umbrella bag and begin pulling something out, but she then turned away.<sup>94</sup>
97. Thomas Sr. saw Carlos aim the shotgun at the officers.<sup>95</sup>
98. Thomas Jr. saw Carlos point the shotgun after pulling it out.<sup>96</sup>
99. Ofcr. Munoz said the male started to bring the shotgun up towards Munoz.<sup>97</sup>
100. Christopher saw Carlos pull the shotgun out of the sleeve, then cocked or racked it, and pointed it at the officers.<sup>98</sup>
101. Christopher saw the officers back up.<sup>99</sup>
102. Ofcr. Heiting said he began to back up to a car to his left.<sup>100</sup>
103. Jorge saw Carlos cock or rack the weapon, and then fire it.<sup>101</sup>
104. Ofcr. Munoz said he fired 2 to 3 rounds at the male.<sup>102</sup>
105. Ofcr. Munoz said he fired because his life and the life of the officer next to him were in danger from the male pointing a shotgun.<sup>103</sup>
106. Anon saw Carlos cock the gun and shoot at police.<sup>104</sup>

107. No spent shotgun rounds were located, or any other evidence to suggest that Carlos fired the shotgun.
108. Ofcr. Heiting heard the racking of a shotgun as he saw the male pull the gun around and point it.<sup>105</sup>
109. Ofcr. Heiting dove behind a nearby car and drew his service weapon.<sup>106</sup>
110. Ofcr. Munoz also moved to a position behind the same nearby car that Ofcr. Heiting was behind.<sup>107</sup>
111. Ofcr. Munoz saw that Ofcr. Heiting was down, and Munoz believed that Heiting had been shot. Munoz put out an "11-99" call on the radio.<sup>108</sup>
112. CAD does not list an "11-99" broadcast, but at 2017 showed "shots fired suspect down."<sup>109</sup>
113. CAD showed "officers code 4" also at 2017.<sup>110</sup>
114. Ofcr. Munoz saw that the heavy-set male who had been confrontational started running towards the downed male, and was yelling at the officers, saying he was going to get the shotgun.<sup>111</sup>
115. Ofcr. Munoz said he told the heavy-set male that if he picked up the gun, Munoz would shoot him.<sup>112</sup>
116. Ofcr. Munoz saw that Ofcr. Heiting was not shot, and was next to him behind the parked vehicle.<sup>113</sup>
117. Christopher saw Carlos shoot at the police and a blast came from the end of the shotgun.<sup>114</sup>
118. Thomas Sr. did not hear the shotgun being fired.<sup>115</sup>
119. Jorge heard about two other shots after Carlos fired.<sup>116</sup>
120. Lupe heard 6 or 7 gunshots immediately after Carlos begin pulling the item out of the case.<sup>117</sup>
121. Maria heard several shots.<sup>118</sup>
122. After about 5 seconds, Thomas Sr. heard 3 or more gunshots.<sup>119</sup>
123. Ofcr. Heiting looked out from behind the car and saw the male subject lying on the ground on his left side, using both hands to raise the shotgun toward Ofcr. Munoz.<sup>120</sup>
124. Ofcr. Munoz saw that the downed male started to try and get up, getting to his butt or his knees, and that he picked up the shotgun.<sup>121</sup>
125. Ofcr. Munoz told the male several times to drop the gun, but the male pointed the gun toward Munoz.<sup>122</sup>
126. Ofcr. Munoz fired another 2 or 3 rounds at the male, and the male again went down, dropping the shotgun.<sup>123</sup>
127. Ofcr. Heiting fired one round from his service weapon toward the male's torso, and the male dropped the shotgun.<sup>124</sup>

128. At 2018, either Ofcr. Heiting or Munoz broadcast "suspect down to the front of the residence."<sup>125</sup>
129. Anon heard 3 or 4 shots a few seconds after Carlos fired one shot.<sup>126</sup>
130. Christopher heard 2 or more gunshots after Carlos had fired.<sup>127</sup>
131. After the shooting, Ofcr. Heiting saw several persons move back into the garage, then into the house.<sup>128</sup>
132. After the shooting, Ofcr. Munoz said the situation was very fluid, with everyone shouting and running into the house, except the heavy-set male who remained outside, challenging the officers.<sup>129</sup>
133. Ofcr. Heiting saw 1 male was not cooperating with commands to "get down," and who kept reaching into his pockets.<sup>130</sup>
134. Ofcr. Heiting believed the other persons in the house and garage presented a threat to the officers.<sup>131</sup>
135. The male subject started doing pushups in the garage, and Ofcr. Heiting believed he was attempting to pump himself up.<sup>132</sup>
136. Maria then saw Carlos on the ground, and she saw blood.<sup>133</sup>
137. Maria saw Clyde Barringer calling 9-1-1 for an ambulance.<sup>134</sup>
138. Sergeant Blomdahl drove from Magnolia Station to the residence "code 3," and upon his arrival he saw Carlos lying in the street near the driveway.<sup>135</sup>
139. Sgt. Blomdahl had monitored police radio information that officers believed uncooperative family members were in the garage.<sup>136</sup>
140. At 2019, Sgt. Blomdahl broadcast information that officers were pinned down behind a car to the front, and that subjects inside were not complying.<sup>137</sup>
141. Sgt. Blomdahl coordinated a plan with Sgt. Hoxmeier to approach the downed suspect Carlos and move him about 40 feet away so he could be attended by on-scene medical personnel.<sup>138</sup>
142. At 2020, CAD recorded that officers were trying to get to the suspect to the front with the shotgun, and that it was unknown if medical (assistance) was needed.<sup>139</sup>
143. After assisting officers arrived, Ofcr. Munoz became part of the team that removed the downed male from the driveway to a safe location for medical aid.<sup>140</sup>
144. Sgt. Blomdahl estimated that it took 4-5 minutes from the time of his arrival until Carlos was moved and treatment began.<sup>141</sup>
145. Ofcr. Heiting believed it was about 5 minutes until enough assisting units arrived to approach the downed male and remove him and the shotgun to a safe location, and about 8 minutes before aid was administered.<sup>142</sup>
146. Ofcr. Heiting picked up the shotgun from the ground, and subsequently removed one round from the chamber, then placed both the shotgun and the round in a sergeant's car.<sup>143</sup>

147. Multiple officers then assisted with having the remaining guests exit the home and garage, and securing the home and garage.
148. From 2023 on, CAD indicated that all radio traffic concerned contacting persons in the home, and there was no further discussion of the subject downed in the street.<sup>144</sup>
149. Ofcr. Mike Andrews followed the ambulance at 2045 hours to Riverside community Hospital.<sup>145</sup>
150. At 2118 hours, Carlos was pronounced deceased by Dr. Tito.<sup>146</sup>
151. By 2132, CAD recorded that all persons were removed from the residence, and the residence had been searched and secured.<sup>147</sup>
152. Evidence Technician Ellis photographed and recovered from the scene 6 spent 40 caliber bullet casings.<sup>148</sup>
153. Det. Brandt assisted in the charting of the officers' weapons, and confirmed that Ofcr. Munoz fired 5 rounds from his primary duty weapon.<sup>149</sup>
154. Det. Brandt's charting confirmed that Ofcr. Heiting fired 1 round from his primary duty weapon.<sup>150</sup>
155. Technician Ellis confirmed that the shotgun's magazine contained 3 live .12 gauge rounds of ammunition, in addition to the one live round recovered with the shotgun.<sup>151</sup>
156. Det. Mike Medici examined the Barringer's residence and found signs of a struggle and small amounts of blood both inside the residence and in the rear yard, plastic lawn furniture and table were broken on the rear patio, and a screen door to the kitchen sliding door was pulled off its track, damaged, and on the floor of the patio.<sup>152</sup>
157. Four (4) projectiles were recovered from the decedent's body during autopsy: 1 from the left buttocks, 1 from the left armpit, 1 from the left shoulder, and 1 from the left mid-buttocks.<sup>153</sup>
158. A fifth projectile was recovered from the decedent's underwear during autopsy.<sup>154</sup>
