

Robert Slawsby, originally from Boston, Massachusetts, settled in Southern California in 1992 and has lived in Riverside for twelve years. Earning a Bachelor's Degree in Communications from the University of Rhode Island in 1991, he finished his schooling at Harvard University in 1992.

His passion and joy for sports led him to a career in live broadcast sports television as a Producer and Associate Director. Robert has worked for such networks as ABC, ESPN, and Fox Sports. He is also a member of the Directors Guild of America with over 16 years of experience in all aspects of sports broadcasting, garnering him three Emmy Award nominations.

Robert has been an active advocate for public safety and he supports the Special Olympics foundation. He has served on the Airport Commission and the Charter Cable task force interpreting the City contract with its cable partner.

Robert is married to Dana, a life-long Riverside resident, and together they have two children.
