DATE J3-01-12	TYPE OF REPORT 245(d)(1)	INVESTIGATING OFFICER K. Feimer #1001
------------------	-----------------------------	--

On 03-01-12, at approximately 0230 hours, I responded to the area of Anna and Lincoln reference a radio call for assistance from Ofc. S. Lopez. Ofc. Lopez advised he was in a foot pursuit and then advised of shots fired. I arrived on scene and was directed to 2914 Hyde Park. I assisted in establishing the crime scene on Hyde Park. Sgt Lambert requested I respond to Ofc. Lopez's Patrol Unit and stop the COBAN Recording. I went to the patrol car and turned off the COBAN Recording.

At approximately 0256 hours I followed the AMR ambulance with the suspect to Riverside Community Hospital (RCH). I stood by the trauma room while the medical staff worked on the suspect. While they were working on him, Riverside Fire Department (RFD) Capt Williams handed me a glass pipe. The pipe resembled the type commonly used to smoke Methamphetamine. The pipe was covered with blood. He advised it was removed from one of the suspect's socks. He did not know which sock it was removed from. I collected the pipe for evidence.

At approximately 0320 hours Dr. Nagappan declared the suspect deceased. I stood by with the body until Det Simons relieved me at approximately 0650 hours. I booked the pipe into property at Lincoln Station.
