NARRATIVE:

On Tuesday, June 11, 2013, at approximately 2310 hours, I was at home and received a telephone call from Lt. Griffiths. Lt. Griffiths told me that a police K-9 was deployed and apprehended a suspect at the scene of an Officer Involved Shooting. Since I was the Canine Unit Coordinator, Lt. Griffiths told me to respond to the command post at Van Buren and Andrew and to check-in with the Lt. Chad Milby. I arrived on scene and was briefed by Lt. Milby and Sgt. Tipre about the deployment of the police K-9.

Following the briefing, I was allowed to follow the OIS Team into the scene to evaluate the area where the K-9 had been deployed. After assessing the area where the police K-9 was deployed and the location where the suspect was apprehended by the police K-9, I cleared the scene.
