

Hardcover Nonfiction Bestsellers

LOS ANGELES TIMES, August 18, 2013

+ = owned by library

No.	Title	Weeks on List
1.	Zealot by Reza Aslan. The religion scholar sheds new light on Jesus by examining his life during first-century Palestine.	3
2.	This Town by Mark Leibovich. Inside the culture of Beltway politics where funerals are big ticket networking events. ON ORDER	3
3.	Let's Explore Diabetes With Owls by David Sedaris. The essayist's recent collection of life's travails and travel tales. +	15
4.	Lean In by Sheryl Sandberg. The Facebook executive offers observations on gender inequities in the professional world. +	22
5.	My Lunches With Orson by Henry Jaglom and Peter Biskind. Sharp-tongued commentary recorded during private lunchtime chats during the last years of Welles' life.	3
6.	Grumpy Cat by Grumpy Cat. A scrapbook filled with photos and quips of the cat with the perpetually frowny face.	2
7.	Difficult Men by Brett Martin. A look at the rise of the anti-hero on TV shows as "Mad Men," "Breaking Bad," and "The Sopranos."	4
8.	Sleepless in Hollywood by Lynda Obst. The film producer dishes on the current state of the entertainment industry.	7
9.	Shirley Jones: A Memoir by Shirley Jones. The squeaky-clean Partridge family matriarch candidly discusses her sex life in this autobiography.	2
10.	Unbroken by Laura Hillenbrand. The story of Louis Zamperini, a World War II bombardier, POW and Olympian. +	114

