Get Fit! Get Healthy! Get Going! Mayor Loveridge launches monthly walks

RIVERSIDE, Calif. – Lace up your walking shoes and join Mayor Ron Loveridge for Saturday morning walks throughout the summer. The walk is a great opportunity to chat with Mayor Loveridge and a special guest while getting fit and healthy.

On the third Saturday of June, July, August, and September join Mayor Loveridge and a special guest as they explore various trails throughout Riverside.

“Walking is a wonderful activity which allows us to take a look at the beauty Riverside offers,” said Mayor Ronald O. Loveridge. “I welcome the opportunity to meet Riverside residents while getting fit.”

Scheduled locations and guests are:

June 20 – Mt. Rubidoux – 9th Street entrance with guest Ron Redfern, Press-Enterprise

July 18 – Sycamore Canyon Wilderness Park – entrance on Central Avenue with guest Tim White, University of California Riverside Chancellor

August 15 – Citrus Heritage Park – 9400 Dufferin Avenue with guest Rick Miller, Riverside Unified School District Superintendent

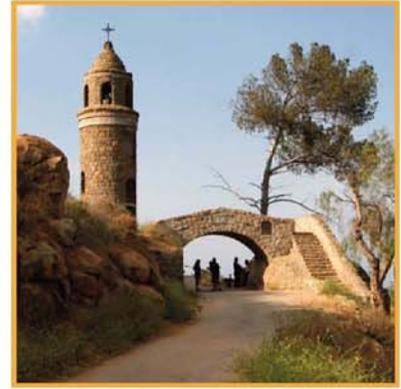

September 19 – Hidden Valley Wildlife Area – 11401 Arlington Avenue with guest Stan Morrison, University of California Riverside Athletic Director

Meet at 7:30 a.m. for a warm up as walks begin promptly at 7:45 a.m.
