

HELP PRESERVE AND SHARE RIVERSIDE'S HISTORY

This restored Victorian house, owned by the Riverside Metropolitan Museum, reflects the lifestyle in Riverside during the 1890s. It currently serves as a public museum hosting school tours and a variety of special events throughout the year. The house offers a variety of volunteer opportunities from gardening, gift shop sales, to leading tours of the home.

LEARN HOW TO BECOME A HERITAGE HOUSE VOLUNTEER!

Join us for a complimentary continental breakfast hosted by our volunteers, followed by an informative outside tour that will demonstrate various volunteer opportunities.

- Visit our lovely gift shop
- See the table setting for our elegant Teas
- Admire our refurbished catering kitchen
- Tour the barn and orange grove
- Try-out hands-on activities we use for our school tours
- Admire the historic architectural structures and grounds

Since the house is filled with fascinating objects, we will finish the morning with a "question and answer" tour of the interior. You will be encouraged to ask questions, and we will try to answer them!
