FIRST SUNDAYS

Sunday, November 6, 2011

1 - 4 pm | Free!

MAKE YOUR OWN MONEY

UCR ArtsBlock (Culver Center, Sweeney Art Gallery, and California Museum of Photography)

What is money anyway? Access an assortment of collage materials to make your own “money.” After making your own money, you can see JEFF & GORDON: PLAY AGAINST, an exhibit at the Sweeney Art Gallery that explores the foreclosure crisis in Southern California and the tensions between cooperation and competition in big (real) money. By the way, admission to UCR ARTSblock is free on First Sundays—so you don’t even have to spend the “money” you “made” to visit!

SORRY, NO PROGRAM AT THIS LOCATION FOR THIS MONTH!

Riverside Fox Theater Foundation at Fox Theater

FESTIVAL OF LIGHTS HOLIDAY WREATH

Mission Inn Museum

During the holidays, the Mission Inn celebrates this fun season with the Festival of Lights. The hotel is decked out in over 3.5 million lights and loads of holiday decorations! Come to the Mission Inn Museum this month to make a beautiful holiday wreath so you can make your home just as festive as the Mission Inn!

A FESTIVE HOLIDAY!

Riverside Art Museum

Come explore the Riverside Art Museum galleries with some freshly popped popcorn. While you’re there, be sure to make a festive holiday craft!

ORANGE YOU GLAD I DIDN’T SAY BANANA!

Riverside Metropolitan Museum

Visit the Museum for some citrus fun. Learn about the history of the city’s citrus industry. Create your own orange crate label and “pick oranges” like workers in the 19th century groves. We’ll be making orange juice, and tasting a variety of citrus fruits courtesy of the UCR Citrus experiment station.

OFF TO RUSSIA!

Riverside Public Library

We are off to Russia where we will be making Nesting Dolls from 1-2 and then experience a wonderful Marionette Show by Scott Land from 2-3 and we will end our day by making more Nesting Dolls from 3-4.

The Plein Air Artists of Riverside will be painting the historic Fox Theater at the corners of Market and Mission Inn Ave. during First Sunday
