The Association of Women in Science from UCR will be there again with a fun science project. The Riverside Children's Theater will also be participating. Also, make sure to get your family's name on a Hollywood star and be part of our "Walk of Fame!"

CELEBRATING CULTURES: CHINESE NEW YEAR

Mission Inn Museum

Join the Mission Inn Museum as we celebrate cultures that influenced the beautiful art and architecture of the Mission Inn. This month, we will be creating dancing paper dragons in observation of Chinese New Year, which takes place on January 31. Images of dragons have deep symbolic and cultural value in China. Frank Miller, the founder of the Mission Inn, respected Chinese culture and travelled to China on several occasions. The Court of the Orient and the Ho-O-Kan room in the Mission Inn feature historic artifacts collected from China, including the beautiful wood carving of The Mandarin's Journey.

NEW YEAR'S KEYCHAINS

Riverside Art Museum

Join Gluck Fellows, Chelsea Rector and Marc Abi-Samra, as we make a New Year's Keychain Resolution. Don't loose your keys in 2014, sport an awesome keychain instead! Deck out your backpack or bag with your very own keychain creation. We will provide the beads and string, you can bring the creativity... Once again at RAM, Storyteller Karen Rae Kraut will be joined by musician Jay De Anelo. Join us as she performs "Story's for the Season of Peace". Enjoy a fun craft, and even get your face painted.
