AN OLD-FASHIONED INDEPENDENCE DAY CELEBRATION

21st Annual

ICE CREAM SOCIAL

Sunday, June 29, 2014

12 - 4 pm | free family event

Riverside Metropolitan Museum's Heritage House

- Sons of the American Revolution Revolutionary War Parade & Musketfiring
- George & Martha Washington Cotillion Dancers
- Victorian Games & Musical Entertainment
- Music & Booksignings by Local Authors
- Handmade Ice Cream Demos & Free Ice Cream!

Independence Day in Victorian Riverside was an occasion for Sousa Marches, patriotic speeches, bunting on trees & buildings, picnics, fireworks, & ice cream socials. Join the Riverside Metropolitan Museum's Heritage House as we take you back for an Independence Day Celebration inspired by the era of this Victorian House and Museum built in the 1890s. Take a docent-led tour of the House, enjoy music, entertainment, games, demos, and ice cream! Fun for the whole family!
