CELEBRATE CINCO DE MAYO

Riverside Art Museum

Celebrate Cinco de Mayo with the Aztec story, "How the Sun and Moon Got Up in the Sky." Storyteller Karen Rae Kraut is joined by musician Jay De Angelo for exciting musical accompaniment and sound effects at 2:00 PM. Audience members will have the chance to perform with the duo on rhythm instruments and body percussion. Also, please join us at 1:00 and at 2:30 for a UCR Gluck Undergraduate Contemporary Dance Ensemble lead by Graduate Fellow Hannah Schwadron. Fun crafts for all and face painting with Miss Pamela.

OUTER SPACE LANTERNS

UCR ArtsBlock (Culver Center, Sweeney Art Gallery, and California Museum of Photography)

It's a wonder you can see at night! Visit the Outer Space Lanterns workshop and craft a paper lantern to draw your own night sky upon. Limit one lantern per visitor.

ROCK N' FIESTA

Fox Riverside Theater Foundation on the mall

Join us for the last Family Fun Day of the season! The Fox Foundation will be celebrating Cinco de Mayo and the upcoming performance of Elvis Lives! with homage to the world of music. The Foundation will be creating colorful maracas and helping design beautiful crowns for all the little Kings and Queens of Rock n' Roll. The Association for Women in Science will be creating a fantastic science project for everyone to enjoy. Also stop by to pick up your family's Fox walk of fame star! PLEASE NOTE: For the rest of this First Sundays season we will be located in the Downtown pedestrian mall area.

CAPTAIN CARL & HIS MOBILE TIDEPHOL

Riverside Metropolitan Museum

Touch and observe a variety of sea life from our local oceans, pet a shark, hold a starfish and see where sea squirts get their names! Learn about the animals that once lived inside the seashells you collect on the beach and why you hear the ocean when you hold a large shell up to your ear! Find out how to make choices that will have a positive impact on our local beaches, marine life, and ocean.

FANTASTIC BIRD KITES

Mission Inn Museum

Frank Miller, founder of the Mission Inn loved birds and owned many different kinds, including two Brazilian macaws. These macaws, Napoleon and Joseph, are featured in many of the symbols and decorations at the Mission Inn. All of Frank's birds flew freely around the outdoor Court of the Birds at the hotel during Frank's lifetime. Join the Mission Inn Museum to make a bird kite that you can let fly!

A TOUR ACROSS AMERICA - SO CAL CELEBRATES CINCO DE MAYO

Riverside Public Library

Now back home to beautiful Southern California we will be celebrating "Cinco De Mayo". Join us from 1:00-2:00 to make your own tissue flowers. Then, from 2:00-3:00, enjoy a special Cinco De Mayo Magic Show from Rafael and Katia. If you did not get a chance to make your Cinco De Mayo flower, from 3-4 you have one more opportunity to make your own.
