

SUMI'S HOUSE

a one-act play for all ages by Kate Anger

Sumi Harada, a first generation Japanese American, is not convinced her family's story is a treasure worth sharing. The play chronicles the Harada family's pioneering struggles in Riverside, California and was informed by Mark Rawitsch's non-fiction book, The House on Lemon Street.

A Special Performance with Director's Chat

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 21st

Performance: 7:00 pm

Location: The Box

Ticket Price:

Family Four-Pack for $35 or $10 each

FUNDRAISER for National Historic Landmark
Harada House Preservation

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 22nd

6:30 | Reception

7:30 | Performance

8:30 | Director's Chat

Location: The Box

Ticket Price: $50/ticket

To Purchase Tickets, Visit: www.riversideca.gov/museum

The BOX
Fox Entertainment Plaza
Riverside, California

RIVERSIDE METROPOLITAN MUSEUM

www.riversideca.gov/museum | (951) 826-5273