INTRODUCTION TO THE HOUSING ELEMENT UPDATE
Statewide Housing Goal

“...Decent housing and suitable living environment for every California family.”
What is a Housing Element?

- One of the seven State-required Elements of the General Plan
- Plans for the provision of housing for a variety of income levels
- Assesses housing needs at the local level
- Requires review and certification by the State
Why Update the Housing Element?

- Ensure future policy is reflective of community needs/challenges/opportunities
- Many grant/funding programs require a certified Housing Element
- Essential for establishing policy guidance for long-term housing needs
- Update required by State law
  - Must be adopted by October 15, 2013, for 8-year Housing Element Cycle
  - If not adopted by due date, Housing Element must be updated every 4 years
