Important Questions and Answers About this Plan

What Is a Specific Plan?
Whereas a community's General Plan is the primary guide to the physical growth, development and improvement of the community, local communities may also prepare Specific Plans for the systematic implementation of the general plan for all or part of the area covered by the general plan. In essence, by preparing and adopting a specific plan, a local community may pay particular attention to the unique characteristics of special areas of the community. A specific plan allows the community to tailor the planning process and subsequent implementation programs to help realize the community's future vision for its physical development. The authority for preparing and adopting specific plans derives from California's planning, zoning and development laws, Sections 65450, et. seq. of the Government Code.
