2012 RIVERSIDE NEIGHBORHOOD CONFERENCE
CELEBRATING NEIGHBORHOODS!

RIVERSIDE, Calif. – The City of Riverside and the Riverside Neighborhood Partnership have joined together to host the 2012 Riverside Neighborhood Conference on Saturday, June 2nd from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. on Main Street between 10th Street and Mission Inn Avenue in Downtown Riverside.

This free family-fun event will provide residents with the opportunity to network with local neighborhoods, city departments and local community-building resources to promote neighborhood livability. It is through collaboration we strive to problem-solve, connect and continue to build our quality of life.

This year the conference will present exciting workshops that feature community building and neighborhood sustainability. The event will have over 41 exhibit booths sponsored by community groups, service agencies and city departments. Attendees of the conference will have a chance to attend free workshops on civic leadership, neighborhood involvement in problem-solving and working with government to improve quality of life. The conference will also include live entertainment, children's activities and numerous neighborhood organizing workshops.

The conference, including all workshops, is free for all community members. For conference questions, email neighbor@riversideca.gov or call 951-826-2390.
