

City of Arts & Innovation

News Release

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Friday, October 12, 2012

Contact:

Cindie Perry, Intergovernmental & Communications Officer
951.826.5975

It's all in a name Help Riverside name two new entertainment venues

RIVERSIDE, Calif. – With the second phase of the Fox Entertainment Plaza nearing completion there is a great deal of excitement surrounding the opening of a new black box theater and exhibit hall. The question is what to call it – that's where we need your two cents.

Go to <http://www.surveymonkey.com/s/82HTKGH> and share your thoughts.

The 'black box theater' is a flexible space designed to accommodate various artistic performances from hip hop to theatrical troupes and emerging bands to lecture series. The theater will hold up to 225 seats.

The 'exhibit hall' is designed as a flexible 10,000 square foot open space that can accommodate various exhibitions and larger traveling museum exhibitions.

The survey is available through Monday, Oct 22.

###