MISSING JUVENILES - UPDATE Public's Help Requested

RIVERSIDE, CA – The Riverside Police Department (RPD) is thankful for the media's assistance and the public response in the attempt to locate Diana Tourdot, 14 and Raylynn Bolt, 12. The girls are friends and Raylynn was spending the night at Diana's home on Saturday night. They were last believed to be in the residence around midnight on the night of January 25 (Saturday). The investigation is continuing and detectives have been assisted by RPD School Resource Officers, family and friends in attempting to locate the two girls. The girls are still missing but at this point in the investigation, it is believed the girls ran away from home.

The public has provided to investigators what is believed to be credible information that the two girls were alone together. They were seen in various locations in Riverside and Corona. The last sighting of the girls was about 3 PM on Sunday afternoon near the Riverside Plaza in Riverside.
