RIVERSIDE POLICE OFFICER ASSOCIATION AND CALIFORNIA PIZZA KITCHEN TEAM UP FOR THE SECOND ANNUAL FUNDRAISER

RIVERSIDE, CA – On February 24, 25, 26, and 27th, California Pizza Kitchen and the Riverside Police Officer's Association have partnered for what is becoming an annual fundraiser in remembrance of our fallen officers and those in need of assistance.

Thursday, February 7, 2013, Christopher Donner ambushed Officer Michael Crain and Officer Andrew Tachias. Officer Crain paid the ultimate sacrifice and Officer Tachias was severely injured. San Bernardino County Sheriff Detective Jeremiah MacKay also paid the ultimate sacrifice and Deputy Alex Collins was severely injured during a shootout with Dorner in the San Bernardino Mountains. Following this event, California Pizza Kitchen rallied behind the Riverside Police Department and San Bernardino Sheriff's Department by conducting a state-wide fundraiser for the fallen officers of both Riverside Police Department and the San Bernardino County Sheriff's Department.

This year, California Pizza Kitchen, Riverside restaurant is partnering with the Riverside Police Officer's Association to support the Employee Assistance Fund. This is becoming an annual event for CPK Riverside to give back to the community and support the Riverside Police Officer's Association.

On February 24, 25, 26, and 27th, CPK Riverside, will be donating 20% of your bill to the RPOA Employee Assistance Fund. Throughout the week, various police units will be on display for the public to view and interact with the officers.
