Homicide suspect sought

Composite drawing prepared of suspect in Nov. 8 stabbing death

Riverside, CA -- On Thursday, November 8, 2007, at about 9:15 p.m., Riverside Police responded to a stabbing incident in the 9200-block of Magnolia Avenue. The victim, a 41-year-old Middle Eastern male, died later at a Riverside Community Hospital, of multiple stab wounds to his upper body.

Witnesses reported seeing a subject with a dark hooded sweatshirt loitering in the nearby strip mall prior to the stabbing. The attached composite sketch was created Friday, based on witness statements. The larger image is of the suspect seen while loitering and the small profile image is as the suspect appeared immediately following the assault. The suspect is described as a Hispanic or American Indian male, 5'6" to 6' tall, wearing a black hooded sweatshirt.
