Missing man sought

Transito Ramos, 47, disappeared under suspicious circumstances

Riverside, CA -- Riverside Police are seeking information to locate a man who went missing from his Northside Riverside residence early Friday morning.

According to family statements, Transito Ramos, 47, prepared for work and took out the trash about 5:30 a.m., Friday, February 15 at his home on Chase Road in the city's Northside neighborhood. Ramos never came back into the house. When his wife went to look for him, she found the full trash can, tipped over at the curb, but no sign of her husband. His car and personal belongings were not disturbed, and he did not report to his long-time employer.

Preliminary investigation indicates Mr. Ramos has no health or other issues that might contribute to his disappearance.

Anyone with information helpful to this investigation or about the whereabouts of Transito Ramos, is asked to call Riverside Police Detective Dave Smith at (951) 353-7103 or Detective Jim Brandt at (951) 353-7137. Urgent after-hours calls may be made to (951) 787-7911 or by calling 911.
