

STOMPING GROUNDS

a college student's guide to riverside.

note from the mayor

Greetings from the Mayor!

Welcome to Riverside, your new home and home to more than 50,000 students. With about 300,000 residents, Riverside is an exciting city in which to live, work, play, or most importantly for you, learn. As Mayor and UCR Professor, I extend my warmest welcome.

Riverside is not just a good city but a great city because, in no small part, you have selected to study at CBU, LSU, RCC, or UCR. These campuses and their thriving student populations distinguish Riverside from other cities in Southern California as a community of universities and colleges.

There is a Renaissance in Riverside. We can take pride in the extraordinary change that is taking place. We can take pride in Riverside as an exciting, diverse, urban and successful city. I encourage you to discover our city and participate in its life and times.

Stomping Grounds was created by students to help you experience Riverside. With the help of Riverside Transit Agency (RTA), roaming through town is made easy. Godspeed in your education, and remember to keep Stomping Grounds close by as you discover Riverside!

Ron Loveridge, Mayor
(UCR Political Science Professor, 1965-)

note from the staff

Welcome to your 2010 newly updated edition of Stomping Grounds! Your 2007 Stomping Grounds staff wanted to send you this note at the time of its creation:

So, you've made it to Riverside and you're ready to find out just what the city has to offer. Stomping Grounds has made it into your hands and you discover a comprehensive collection of locations. As you leaf through the pages and scour the city, you realize that Riverside is full of interesting attractions.

Of course Riverside is full of big names like Cheesecake Factory, but Stomping Grounds is a select representation of the many places that are unique to Riverside. Within the pages of this guide, you will find all the necessary information you'll need to get from your place to one of Riverside's great (and economically considerate) places to shop, eat, or just have fun. Stomping Grounds has included the Riverside Transit Agency routes that will get you to each destination without draining your gas tank.

Stomping Grounds: The College Student's Guide to Riverside is just the beginning of our adventures together.

Sincerely,
Paul Dillon (RCC)
Vanessa Fulladosa (UCR)
Greg Johnson (CBU)
Lauren Kistler (LSU)
Katherine Sanchez (UCR)
Your 2007 Stomping Grounds Staff

This newly updated guide is here to offer you the same assistance as the original, but we have been sure to include some of the newest hotspots and events available in the City of Arts & Innovation. Enjoy!
Sincerely,
Your 2010 updater
Lindsay Short (UCR)

You're hungry. You can't stop thinking about food. Only, you can't decide what you're hungry for. A sandwich? Sushi? Perhaps a delicious baked Guatemalan pastry? Take a look at this list of restaurants, cafés, sweet stops and coffee shops to find exactly what that insatiable appetite of yours is looking for.

Taco Station offers "full-service" fare. Serving breakfast until 11 a.m., plus lunch and dinner, you won't find another Mexican restaurant quite like this one. Dine-in and enjoy the vintage gas pumps, or take-out and get back to studying (catering is also available). Either way, Taco Station is great for all your culinary needs.

A) It's 8 p.m. and you're about to embark on a stay-up-all-night-studying-journey-of-a-lifetime. B) It's 8 a.m. and you've just stayed up all night studying and you need a boost before you get an A+ on your midterm. C) It's an indiscriminate time on a Saturday and all you can think about is curling up with a book and a cup of tea, and maybe catching an open mic or a concert.
