RESOLUTION NO. 22069

A RESOLUTION OF THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF RIVERSIDE, CALIFORNIA, ORDERING, CALLING, PROVIDING FOR AND GIVING NOTICE OF A SPECIAL MUNICIPAL ELECTION TO BE HELD IN SAID CITY ON THE 2nd DAY OF NOVEMBER, 2010 FOR THE PURPOSE OF SUBMITTING TO THE QUALIFIED ELECTORS OF THE CITY OF RIVERSIDE, AN AMENDMENT TO CHAPTER 5.32 OF THE RIVERSIDE MUNICIPAL CODE TO INCREASE THE CITY'S TRANSIENT OCCUPANCY TAX FROM ELEVEN PERCENT (11%)TO TWELVE PERCENT EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2012, AND TO THIRTEEN PERCENT (13%), EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2014, AND GIVING NOTICE AND ORDERING THAT SAID SPECIAL MUNICIPAL ELECTION BE CONSOLIDATED WITH ALL OTHER ELECTIONS BEING HELD IN THE SAME TERRITORY ON THE SAME DATE.

WHEREAS, the City of Riverside has an existing transient occupancy tax ordinance which is set forth in Chapter 5.32 of the Riverside Municipal Code and which was initially adopted by the City in 1966, and which provides for a tax to be imposed on the privilege of occupying rooms within hotels, motels, inns and other dwelling units within the City for periods of less than thirty days; and

WHEREAS, the City's transient occupancy tax is considered a general tax under Article XIIIC of the California Constitution; and

WHEREAS, the existing transient occupancy tax rate set forth in Chapter 5.32 has not been increased since 1993; and

WHEREAS, the City's existing transient occupancy rate of eleven percent (11%) is less than certain other similarly situated cities with convention centers such as Ontario and Palm Springs; and

WHEREAS, the City Council now desires to provide for an increase of the transient occupancy tax rate, by increasing the tax rate from eleven percent (11%) to twelve percent (12%), effective July 1, 2012, and from twelve percent (12%) to thirteen percent (13%), effective July 1, 2014; and

WHEREAS, Article XIIIC of the California Constitution requires that any proposed increase in a general tax must be submitted to, and approved by, a majority of those qualified electors voting in an election to be held on the issue of increasing the tax; and

WHEREAS, the County of Riverside will conduct an election on November 2, 2010.

NOW THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED by the City Council of the City of Riverside, as follows:

Section 1: The City Council, pursuant to its right and authority under California law, approves the proposed ordinance as set forth on Exhibit A, attached hereto and incorporated herein by reference, and hereby orders that the following measure be submitted to the qualified electors of the City of Riverside at a special municipal election to be held on November 2, 2010:

To offset State budget cuts, provide local funding the State cannot take, and supplement City funds for essential services such as 9-1-1 response, police and fire protection, youth/senior programs,	1 tourism, and facilities such as the convention center, libraries, and parks, shall the City's existing transient occupancy tax, also known as a hotel tax paid only by hotel guests, be increased by 2%, subject to audit and all funds staying local?

Section 2: That only the qualified electors of the City of Riverside are entitled to vote at said election on this measure to amend the Riverside Municipal Code and that if a majority of the qualified electors voting on the measure votes in favor of the measure, the measure shall be deemed approved.

Section 3: The City Clerk is authorized, instructed and directed to take all action necessary to consolidate this special municipal election to be held on this proposition with the election to be conducted by the County of Riverside on November 2, 2010.

Section 4: The City Clerk is directed to transmit a copy of the measure to the City Attorney. The City Attorney shall prepare an impartial analysis of the measure pursuant to Elections Code section 9280, showing the effect of the measure on the existing law and the operation of the measure. The analysis shall be printed preceding the arguments for and against the measure.

Section 5: That in accordance with the provisions of the Charter of the City of Riverside and the Constitution and Election Laws of the State of California, a special municipal election to be held and the same is hereby called and ordered to be held in the City of Riverside on November 2, 2010, for the purpose of submitting to the qualified electors of the City of Riverside such measure to increase the City's transient occupancy tax.

Section 6: That the polls for said election shall be open at 7:00 a.m. of the day of said election and shall remain open continuously from said time until 8:00 p.m. of the same day, when the polls shall be closed, except as provided in Section 14401 of the Elections Code of the State of California.

Section 7: That the City Council consents to the consolidation of the special municipal election hereby called with all other elections being held in the same territory on November 2, 2010, and said elections, where possible, shall be held in all respects as if there were only one election within the City of Riverside and only one form of ballot shall be used in the precincts, and polling places and officers of election for said elections shall be the same as provided for the statewide general election.

Section 8: That for the purpose of holding said special municipal election, there shall be and hereby are established consolidated voting precincts, consisting of a consolidation of the regular election precincts in the City of Riverside established for the holding of state and county elections as said regular election precincts exist on the date of this resolution.

Section 9: That the form and contents of the ballot to be used at said election shall be as provided by law.

Section 10: That in accordance with Section 10002 of the Elections Code, the Board of Supervisors of Riverside County is hereby requested to consent to the Registrar of Voters rendering election services to the City of Riverside as may be requested by the City Clerk of said City, the County of Riverside to be reimbursed in full, for such services as are performed.

Section 11: That the City of Riverside requests the Registrar of Voters, or such other official as may be appropriate, to perform, and that such officer is hereby authorized and directed to perform if the said Board of Supervisors consents, services which include the preparation, printing and mailing of sample ballots and polling place cards; the establishment or appointment of precincts, polling places, and election officers, and making such publications as are requested by law in connection therewith; the furnishing of ballots, voting booths and other necessary supplies or materials for polling places; the canvassing of the returns of election and the furnishing of the results of such canvassing to the City Clerk of the City of Riverside; and the performance of such other election services as may be requested by said City Clerk.

Section 12: That the City Clerk shall have charge of all City elections pursuant to Riverside City Charter Section 703(f).

Section 13: That the City Clerk is hereby designated as the "Elections Official" for the purposes of this election pursuant to Elections Code section 320(b).

Section 14: That based upon the foregoing authority, the City Clerk shall have charge of this election and shall make all determinations necessary to conducting this election.

Section 15: That the City Clerk of said City shall receive the canvass of the special municipal election and shall certify the results to the City Council, as required by law.

ADOPTED by the City Council and signed by the Mayor this 27th day of July, 2010.

RONALD O. LOVERIDGE
Mayor of the City of Riverside

EXHIBIT "A"

ORDINANCE NO.

AN ORDINANCE OF THE CITY OF RIVERSIDE, CALIFORNIA, AMENDING CHAPTER 5.32 OF THE RIVERSIDE MUNICIPAL CODE TO INCREASE THE RATE OF THE CITY'S EXISTING TRANSIENT OCCUPANCY TAX FROM ELEVEN PERCENT (11%) TO TWELVE PERCENT (12%) EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2012, AND TO THIRTEEN PERCENT (13%), EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2014.

The People of the City of Riverside do ordain as follows:

Section 1: Section 5.32.020 of Chapter 5.32 of the Riverside Municipal Code is amended to read as follows:

"Section 5.32.020 Tax Imposed.

For the privilege of occupancy in any hotel, each transient is subject to and shall pay a tax in the amount of eleven percent of the rent charged by the operator. Effective July 1, 2012 and thereafter, each transient is subject to and shall pay a tax in the amount of twelve percent (12%) of the rent charged by the operator. Effective July 1, 2014 and thereafter, each transient is subject to and shall pay a tax in the amount of thirteen percent (13%) of the rent charged by the operator. The tax constitutes a debt owed by the transient to the City which is extinguished only by payment to the operator or to the City. The transient shall pay the tax to the operator of the hotel at the time the rent is paid. If the rent is paid in installments, a proportionate share of the tax shall be paid with each installment. The unpaid tax shall be due upon the transient's ceasing to occupy space in the hotel. If for any reason the tax due is not paid to the operator of the hotel, the Tax Administrator may require that such tax shall be paid directly to the Tax Administrator."

Section 2: Notwithstanding Section 9217 of the California Elections Code, without a vote of the People, the City Council may do any and all of the following: (i) repeal this Ordinance; (ii) reduce the rate of the transient occupancy tax below thirteen percent (13%); or (iii) increase the rate of the transient occupancy tax to thirteen percent (13%) if it has been previously reduced below such rate. In no event, however, shall the City Council increase the rate of the transient occupancy tax in excess of thirteen percent (13%) without approval by a majority of the voters voting in an election on the increase.
