Narrative

I responded to the Magnolia Station to assist with follow-up. While there Detective Medici asked me to observe the charting of the involved officers weapons and to collect any digital recordings from them of the incident.

Officer Lopez was carrying a digital recorder. Officer Lopez had (8) recordings on it. Seven of the recordings were of traffic stops from 02-29-12/03-01-12 and the last recording was of a portion of this incident. I listened to the last two recordings to make sure there was only one recording of the incident and then downloaded the contents of the recorder onto the RPD server.

The recording starts with the sounds of sirens. I could hear someone whom I assume was S-Dunbar saying, "I can't breathe" over and over. Another person whom I assume is Officer Lopez tells S-Dunbar, "Don't move" several times and tells him "Don't touch that fucking gun". Sounds of other officers arriving can then be heard. Based on what I heard it appears the recorder was turned on shortly after the shooting had already occurred.

See the transcript for complete details.
