1 Assisting Officers:

2 Sergeant R. Tiple – On scene Supervisor

3
4 Narrative:

5 On 06/11/13, I was working routine patrol, in a marked black and white patrol vehicle, in the 6 City and County of Riverside, California. At approximately 2311 hours, I responded to the 7 Chevron Gas Station, located at 3476 Van Buren Blvd, in reference to a subject with a gun call.

8
9 When I arrived on scene, Sergeant Tiple requested my patrol vehicle to his current location. I
10 drove my patrol vehicle to the southwest area of the parking lot and contacted Sergeant Tiple,
11 who said he needed my patrol vehicle to provide cover for officers who were on scene, so they
12 could approach a subject who had just been shot.

13
14 I located a black male wearing a dark colored shirt with light colored shorts, lying face down
15 with his right arm underneath his head in the planter area of the parking lot, near the air and
16 water pumps in the southwest corner of the gas station. I positioned my patrol vehicle in a safe
17 direction, so assisting officers could use the patrol vehicle as cover as they advanced towards the 18 subject. At the direction of Sergeant Tiple, I slowly advanced my patrol vehicle towards the 19 subject until I was ordered to stop. Assisting officers then approached the subject and took him
20 into custody. (See supplemental reports for further details)

22 After the subject was taken into custody, I exited my patrol vehicle took up a position inside the
23 inner perimeter, so I could keep visual of the subject and the gun that was located underneath
24 him. AMR and RFD responded to the location and rendered medical aid to S1.

25
26 I continued to stand by while the ID Techs, the Coroner, CIB, Supervisors and Detectives
27 processed the scene.

28
29 At 0445 hours, Officer Macek gave me possession of the Major Incident Log and I continued to 30 fill out the personnel entering and exiting the location until the scene was taken down and 31 cleared at 0600 hours.
