62. Narrative of Supplemental Report 62a: Audio Recording Available? Yes On Wed., 11-16-11, I responded to the incident in progress at Tyler Spgs. Apts., 10406 Indiana Av., in the City of Riverside. Myself, and partner Det. R. Ryder were assigned by Sgts. C. Dinco and M. Jackson, to canvass (e.g., contact and interview) the residents and occupants in Bldg. "Q" of the complex. We were told to respond to Apt. [Redacted] first, and to take an adult male (unnamed to me at the time of this report) that was waiting in the lobby area with us. The adult male was identified to us as the adult son of the elderly woman (W/Engebretson) living in Apt. [Redacted] (see Det. Ryder's supp. rpt. for further.) Det. Ryder and I interviewed several subjects in Bldg. "Q", alternating the responsibility of writing the supplemental reports on each. W...oy, in Apt. [Redacted] told me the following: She was up late last night, so she didn't wake up this morning until about 10:15. She didn't know the police were here in the complex, and had not seen or heard anything. Det. Ryder showed her pictures of S1/Romo and his wife; W/Roy did not recognize either of them. DATE 11-16-11	TYPE OF REPORT OIS Supplemental Report	REPORTING OFFICER K. Crutchfield #750
------------------	---	--

W/Steppe, in Apt [REDACTED] told me the following:

She lives alone, but had a gentleman friend over last night (identified by her as Robert "Bob" Raven, from Apt [REDACTED] per his business card given to me by W/Steppe) that had left prior to our arrival. She saw policemen and a police dog go by her apartment earlier, so knew of their presence. Her friend "Bob" saw a neighbor, known as "Gloria" (see Det. R. Ryder's supp rpt. ref. W/Engebretson) walking outside, and invited her to join them inside her apartment. She didn't know why police were in the complex, but Gloria was telling them about it. Det. Ryder showed W/Steppe pictures of S1/Romo and his wife. W/Steppe said she recognized them as the ones with the "nice plants". W/Steppe knew which apartment they lived in, because they have a lot of nice plants around it, and described the location of the apartment (she described #242). She had seen them (S1 and wife) a few times before. She saw them having BBQs near her apartment, and saw the wife in the laundry room, but did not know them personally. She didn't see the husband (S1/Romo) attend the BBQs lately. She believed they had an adult daughter that sometimes visited them, but didn't really know anything else about them. They appeared happy when she observed them. W/Steppe has lived in the complex for six (6) years, in June. She did not know about the incident, and did not hear or see anything in its regard.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION:

Our interviews with subjects contacted in Building "Q" were recorded on Det. R. Ryder's department issued digital recorder, and downloaded under the above file number.
