Watkins, Ida [REDACTED] Phone: [REDACTED] 1045 hours.

Ida said that she heard noises like someone slamming the doors to the trash dumpster area. She thought it was almost 8 o'clock. She heard 6 to 10 of the noises. They had a metallic sound. She didn't know they were shots until she saw Police outside.

I showed her the pictures of the Romos. She knew the Romos, saying they lived in the bottom left apartment in the other building. She didn't socialize with them, just friendly hellos. She thought they were a nice couple. She said that he (S1) didn't get out that much.

Williams, Barbara [REDACTED]

I had previously left a card on Barbara's door. I then ran into her at the clubhouse. Barbara said that she heard shots sometime between 0730 and 8am. I asked how she knew they were shots. She said she use to work at Parker Center in LA and she knows gun shots. I asked how many and she indicated 5 shots, a pause, a shot, a pause and a shot. (for a total of 8). They all sounded alike.

I showed her pictures of the Romos. She said that she had spoken to them, exchanged hellos. He had helped her with her car once. She remembered they had beautiful plants. She thought they had lived at the complex for about a year.
