27. Rescorl saw that Acevedo was still “bucking” after that.²⁷
28. Rescorl said after a few minutes of struggling, Acevedo calmed down then the ambulance arrived.²⁸
29. Rescorl said he saw Acevedo with his hands behind his back, but did not see the handcuffing.²⁹
30. Rescorl said he was standing about 100 feet from the struggle, and he had a very clear view.³⁰

42. Sarah said Acevedo continued to struggle, and the officers held his feet down and then Acevedo stopped moving.⁴²
43. Sarah saw that Acevedo was down on his stomach, and appeared to be handcuffed, with his legs bent and an officer holding his legs.⁴³
44. Sarah said the ambulance arrived within 5 minutes, or “really fast,” and subsequently placed Acevedo on the gurney on his back.⁴⁴
45. Sarah described Acevedo as “pretty big” 5’8” to 5’9”, about 280 pounds.⁴⁵
46. Witness Germain Gabaldon (“Gabaldon”) said at about 9:40 p.m., he was inside his apartment at 7850 Cypress when he heard a scream and a noise in the street that sounded like someone punching a car.⁴⁶
47. Gabaldon went outside and saw Acevedo in the street screaming and holding traffic, and almost twice was struck by passing traffic.⁴⁷

55. Gabaldon said afterwards, it looked like Acevedo was vomiting.⁵⁵
56. Witness Sidney Zamora (“Zamora”) said he was on his balcony at 7851 Cypress and he saw Acevedo in the street with his hands up, holding up traffic.⁵⁶

Version 1.0

62. Ofcr. Koehler said that at about 9:45, he and partner Ratkovich took a dispatched call of a possible 5150 in the roadway screaming at cars.⁶²
63. "5150" refers to California Health & Safety Code section 5150, which allow a peace officer to take into custody for mental evaluation any person who is believed to be a danger to self or others due to a mental disorder.⁶³
64. Koehler said when they arrived on Cypress, they found traffic backed up in both directions due to a man standing in the street.⁶⁴
65. Koehler said as soon as he saw Acevedo, he recognized him as the man they had contacted on Cypress earlier in the shift.⁶⁵
66. Koehler said as he approached, he saw that Acevedo had his head down and was making grunting sounds.⁶⁶
67. Koehler said he told Acevedo several times to get out of the street, and Acevedo looked at him but did not respond.⁶⁷
68. Koehler said that when he approached to within a few feet, Acevedo suddenly jumped into a fighting stance with his hands up, and Acevedo barked or growled.⁶⁸
69. Koehler said he jumped back and pulled his expandable ASP baton, and Acevedo advanced toward him.⁶⁹
70. Koehler said he used a two-handed strike to Acevedo's left thigh, which had no visible effect.⁷⁰
71. Koehler said he then delivered a 2nd baton strike to Acevedo's leg, again with no effect, and Acevedo continued to advance.⁷¹
72. Koehler later viewed Coban video of the fight, and noted that he actually delivered approximately 5 baton strikes to Acevedo's legs.⁷²
73. Koehler said he intended to deliver another strike to the legs, but his baton collapsed, and Acevedo then punched Koehler in the face, knocking off his glasses.⁷³
74. Koehler said he abandoned his baton and delivered a punch to Acevedo, who then tackled Koehler and tried to take him to the ground.⁷⁴
75. Koehler said Acevedo ended up on his knees, with Koehler on top of him, and Koehler could feel Acevedo attempting to move his face in to bite Koehler on the thigh.⁷⁵
76. Koehler said he grabbed Acevedo's head and turned it, then punched Acevedo in the face several times, forcing Acevedo to go to the ground on his back.⁷⁶
77. Koehler said he was trying to grab Acevedo's arms, and yelled at him to roll over, but Acevedo kept turning and fighting, and prevented control of his arms.⁷⁷
78. Koehler said Acevedo was strong, and the fight was hard, so he yelled to Ratkovich to use the taser.⁷⁸
79. Koehler said he heard the rattling discharge of the taser, but Acevedo was not immobilized, and appeared to be trying to roll over onto the taser wires.⁷⁹

Version 1.0

80. Koehler said he was on his knees trying to control Acevedo, who was rolling away toward Ratkovich, so Koehler yelled to tase Acevedo again.⁸⁰
81. Koehler was able to climb onto Acevedo's shoulders, and grab one arm, but Acevedo kept lifting Koehler off the ground, despite Koehler's weight of 265 pounds, and despite Koehler punching Acevedo in the back.⁸¹
82. Koehler told Ratkovich to contact tase Acevedo, who yelled out at the contact but did not stop fighting and struggling.⁸²
83. Koehler said he and Ratkovich were able to get control of first one arm for handcuffing, then after more struggling they cuffed the other arm, but Acevedo continued to fight and struggle even as the officers lied on top of him, and Acevedo was "out of control."⁸³
84. Koehler later viewed Coban video, and noted that after Acevedo was handcuffed, he rolled into position to bite Koehler's left inner leg, and when Koehler felt Acevedo's teeth starting to close, Koehler punched Acevedo.⁸⁴
85. Koehler was able to get on the radio and requested a hobble to restrain Acevedo's feet.⁸⁵
86. Koehler said Officer Lim ("Lim") arrived and provided the hobble, and helped to control Acevedo's legs, and that finally Acevedo became compliant.⁸⁶
87. Koehler said he rolled Acevedo onto his side, and at the same time RFD and AMR were pulling up, so Koehler explained to paramedics that the officers had just tased and fought Acevedo.⁸⁷
88. Koehler said a paramedic said, "He's not breathing," and told Koehler to take off the handcuffs, which Koehler did.⁸⁸
89. Koehler said as the result of the fight, he suffered an injured (and subsequently swollen) left knee, injured right collarbone (complaint of pain), and injured lip (swollen and bleeding).⁸⁹
90. Ofcr. Ratkovich said Dispatch put out a call of a 5150 on Cypress in the middle of the street, and Ratkovich thought it might be the same man he had contacted earlier.⁹⁰
91. Ratkovich also noted that his unit was closer than he assigned police units, so he took the call.⁹¹
92. Ratkovich said when they arrived, he saw that the RPD helicopter had illuminated Acevedo standing in the middle of the street, with multiple cars stopped in the roadway, and several pedestrians nearby on the sidewalks.⁹²
93. Ratkovich turned on the overhead bright "takedown" lights to illuminate Acevedo and to slow traffic.⁹³
94. Ratkovich said Koehler was first to speak with Acevedo, and told him to get out of the road, and Acevedo immediately "keyed in on" Koehler.⁹⁴
95. Ratkovich said Acevedo immediately raised his hands and took a fighting stance toward Koehler, so both Ratkovich and Koehler deployed their ASP expandable batons.⁹⁵
96. Ratkovich said Acevedo took a swing at Koehler, and although Ratkovich did not see contact, he thought Acevedo had struck Koehler.⁹⁶

Version 1.0

97. Ratkovich said he then began delivering baton strikes to Acevedo's right knee, and ordered him to the ground, but Acevedo responded to neither the force nor the commands.⁹⁷
98. Ratkovich said Acevedo was "fairly big," and he and Koehler were on opposite sides facing Acevedo, who remained focused on Koehler.⁹⁸
99. Ratkovich said Acevedo had a "crazed" or "wild" look on his face, and did not appear to be registering what was going on.⁹⁹
100. Ratkovich said he didn't recall exactly how, but Koehler and Acevedo ended up on the ground, and Ratkovich could not find a safe place to deliver any more baton strikes.¹⁰⁰
101. Ratkovich said he discarded his baton, and tried to grab Acevedo's arms, but Acevedo was "incredibly strong" and was fighting back, and punching Koehler.¹⁰¹
102. Ratkovich said Acevedo was on his back, punching and kicking, and the officers could not get Acevedo onto his stomach, despite Ratkovich weighing about 220 pounds.¹⁰²
103. Ratkovich said Koehler told him to use the taser, so Ratkovich kept hold of Acevedo with his left hand, while backing up his upper body 2-3 feet, and fired the taser with his right hand.¹⁰³
104. Ratkovich said he saw the darts make contact with Acevedo, so he discharged a first 5-second burst, but the tasing had no visible affect on Acevedo.¹⁰⁴
105. Ratkovich said Acevedo continued fighting Koehler, and Acevedo also starting rolling, apparently to roll over the taser wires and break their connection with the taser.¹⁰⁵
106. Ratkovich said he discharged (cycled) the taser several more times, but Acevedo continued to fight and did not respond to the tasing.¹⁰⁶
107. Ratkovich said at one point, he felt the taser charge, and realized the wires were getting wrapped around his hand, so he disconnected the dart cartridge so he or Koehler would be protected from taser charge.¹⁰⁷
108. Ratkovich then delivered a drive stun (contact tase) directly between Acevedo's shoulder blades, as Acevedo was on his side facing away from Ratkovich, still fighting Koehler.¹⁰⁸
109. Ratkovich said Koehler was finally able to cuff Acevedo's left arm, and Ratkovich then controlled the right arm, and they were able to handcuff Acevedo, who still continued to struggle and kick.¹⁰⁹
110. Ratkovich said Acevedo was down on his stomach, and Ratkovich was trying to hold Acevedo's legs, but he was able to kick Ratkovich at least 3 times, so Ratkovich removed Acevedo's shoes as other officers began to arrive for assistance.¹¹⁰
111. Ratkovich said with the assistance of Ofcrs. Lim and Heiting, they were able to get a hobble onto Acevedo's ankles, and finally secure Acevedo's feet and legs.¹¹¹
112. Ratkovich said that he then noticed that a crowd had formed, so he got up, collected the discarded batons, notified Dispatch that Fire could roll in, and began to contact persons who appeared to be possible family members.¹¹²
113. Ratkovich said Fire arrived, so he advised them that Acevedo had received baton strikes and taser, and Fire personnel began providing medical attention.¹¹³

114. Ratkovich said Koehler was still on the ground with Acevedo, who was grunting, and Lim and Heiting were still assisting Koehler.¹¹⁴
115. Ratkovich said he saw that medical personnel appeared concerned, and said something about Acevedo being unresponsive, and then Koehler began removing the handcuffs.¹¹⁵
116. Officer James Heiting (“Heiting”) said he responded to a call for assistance, and when he arrived, he saw Koehler and Ratkovich trying to control Acevedo, who was kicking and moving around.¹¹⁶
117. Heiting saw Koehler on Acevedo’s upper body, and Ratkovich at Acevedo’s feet.¹¹⁷
118. Heiting said he assisted by providing a tarp device to secure Acevedo’s legs, and Acevedo continued to struggle the entire time.¹¹⁸
119. Heiting saw RFD arrive within 30 seconds of him assisting in the struggle to control Acevedo.¹¹⁹
120. Heiting said as medical personnel approached, he rolled Acevedo onto his side, and saw as an AMR paramedic reached down for what he perceived as the “standard” task of checking pulse.¹²⁰
121. Ofcr. Lim responded to the 5150 radio call, and when he arrived he saw Ofcrs. Koehler and Ratkovich on top of Acevedo, using their weight to keep him down.¹²¹
122. Lim said he assisted by first holding down Acevedo’s legs, then going to his car to get a hobble for leg restraint.¹²²
123. AMR Paramedic Susan Brien (“Brien”) said she was on duty when her unit received a call that RPD had a 5150 in need of medical attention in the 7800 block of Cypress.¹²³
124. Brien said on arrival, she saw Acevedo lying with his stomach on the ground, handcuffed, and his face to the left.¹²⁴
125. Brien said an RPD officer advised that Acevedo had been combative and had been tased.¹²⁵
126. Brien said it was about 30 seconds from the time she arrived, exited her ambulance, received the preliminary information, and contacted Acevedo.¹²⁶
127. Brien said she could see drool coming from Acevedo’s mouth, so she suggested to an officer that Acevedo should be rolled over, and the officer complied.¹²⁷
128. Brien said after Acevedo was rolled onto his side, she reached down to check for a pulse and saw Acevedo take “one last breath.”¹²⁸
129. Brien said she told her partner to grab a backboard, and an RPD officer began removing all restraints from Acevedo.¹²⁹
130. Brien said as soon as Acevedo was on the backboard, she began CPR, and CPR continued from that time until after his arrival at Parkview Hospital.¹³⁰

131. RFD Fire Captain Robert Abbruzzese (“Abbruzzese”) said he was on duty at RFD Station No. 7, at 10191 Cypress, when he received a call of RPD needing assistance with a 5150 in custody in the 7800 block of Cypress.¹³¹
132. Abbruzzese said when he arrived, he saw numerous police cars, and a male “hog-tied” (feet together, tied to handcuffs), lying flat on his stomach with his face to the side, on the ground.¹³²
133. Abbruzzese said the officers told him that Acevedo appeared to possibly be under the influence of something, due to his erratic behavior.¹³³
134. Abbruzzese said Firefighter Bradley Fike attended to Acevedo, so Abbruzzese checked with a police officer who had blood on his mouth, and had his name tag dangling down, indicating that he had been in a fight.¹³⁴
135. Abbruzzese said he asked the officer if he needed help, but the officer asked Abbruzzese to help Acevedo.¹³⁵
136. Abbruzzese said he then assisted other medical aid personnel attending to Acevedo, and Abbruzzese found that Acevedo was not breathing and had no pulse.¹³⁶
137. Abbruzzese said he then told officers that he needed the handcuffs removed immediately from Acevedo.¹³⁷
138. Abbruzzese said he then went into the ambulance, and prepared a breathing tube, which he intubated into Acevedo when he was loaded into the ambulance, lying on his back on a backboard.¹³⁸
139. RFD Firefighter-Paramedic Bradley Fike (“Fike”) said he was on duty at RFD Station No. 7, at 10191 Cypress, when he received a call of RPD needing assistance with a 5150 in custody in the 7800 block of Cypress.¹³⁹
140. Fike said when he arrived, he saw several RPD officers and Acevedo handcuffed lying chest down in the street, slightly tilted on his left shoulder, with his face turned to the right.¹⁴⁰
141. Fike said when he asked the officers what was going on, they told him Acevedo was agitated and appeared to be under the influence and “5150” (possible need of mental evaluation).¹⁴¹
142. Fike said at about the same time, a female AMR responder arrived and approached Acevedo, and said, “Hey, I don’t think he’s breathing.”¹⁴²
143. Fike said he turned from the officer, and immediately began to assist with Acevedo, including directing an officer to immediately remove the handcuffs and hobble.¹⁴³
144. Fike said he then assisted getting Acevedo onto a backboard, beginning CPR, moving Acevedo to the ambulance, and transported to Parkview.¹⁴⁴
145. CAD data showed that Koehler and Ratkovich were on scene on Cypress at 2149 hours, and RPD “Air 1” was on scene at 2150.¹⁴⁵
146. CAD data showed a dispatch at 2152 by Air 1 that, the “subj[ect] is subdued.”¹⁴⁶

147. Post mortem examination of Acevedo identified bruising on both legs about the knee and thigh, a possible impact mark on the left rib cage, an abrasion to the inside of the lower lip, 2 taser markings to the stomach area (with one dart still imbedded), and 2 taser marks on the right ribcage, possibly from a contact tase.¹⁴⁷
148. Download of data from Ofcr. Ratkovich's taser showed six (6), five-second burst deployments on October 31, beginning at 21:43:23, and ending at 21:44:22 (note: taser internal clock not calibrated with CAD clock).¹⁴⁸
