FIRST SUNDAYS

Fun Activities Available At Six Locations....Admission is Free... Each Month is Different!

Sunday, April 6, 2014

1 - 4 pm | Free!

INSECT-A-RAMA
Riverside Metropolitan Museum

Join us as we get up close and personal with our six-legged friends and explore the world of insects and other arthropods! Walk into our enclosed butterfly and ladybug tent and find out how you can create your own beautiful butterfly garden at home. Design your own insect as you learn about their different body parts. Visit with some experts from UC Riverside Entomology Department and find out how you too can become an expert on insects! We'll also be sampling some delicious insect food items!

CLAY ART INSPIRED BY GERONIMO STILTON SERIES
Riverside Public Library

Create your own clay masterpiece from 1-2 Inspired by the Geronimo Stilton series. Then enjoy a Special Balloon Magic show by Arty Loon from 2-3 then come back for your last chance to sculpt your very own masterpiece from 3-4.

SHAKE IT UP!
Fox Riverside Theater Foundation on the mall***

Come join the Fox Foundation in making festive maracas in time for Easter. Our "Discover the Fox" exhibit is back as well. If you missed it in February, here's another chance to take a peek into the rich history of the Fox Theater. Special guests and performances TBA.

***PLEASE NOTE: this program is located at Mission Inn Ave. and Main St. on the Downtown pedestrian mall area.

CELEBRATING CULTURES: JAPAN
Mission Inn Museum

Join the Mission Inn Museum as we celebrate cultures that influenced the beautiful art and architecture of the Mission Inn. This month we will be celebrating the friendship between Riverside, the Mission Inn, and Japan by creating windsocks in the shape of koi fish! The koi fish is a symbol of affection and friendship in Japanese culture. Frank Miller, founder of the Mission Inn, travelled to Japan many times to learn about their culture and art, collected artifacts to decorate his hotel, and even received a special award from the Japanese Emperor in 1929.

SPRING AT RAM
Riverside Art Museum

Celebrate Earth Day with Storyteller Karen Rae Kraut and musician Jay De Angelo courtesy of the Inlandia Institute as they share three tales: the Kazakh story of "The Magic Garden"; "Not Our Problem" from Burma, which reminds us that everything we do has consequences; and "The Magical Island Song", where audience members will be invited to sing and move along. Also join Gluck Fellows, Chelsea Rector and Marc Abi-Samra, from the Gluck Foundation Program of the Arts for "The Bending Lines and Color Workshop"! We will be twisting and looping pipe cleaners of all colors into fantastic forms!"

EXHIBITS OPEN
UCR ArtsBlock (Culver Center, Sweeney Art Gallery, and California Museum of Photography)

UCR ARTSblock presents the following exhibitions currently on view: Trouble with the Index; Flaws in the Diamond: Exploitation and Empire in South Africa, c. 1900; CMP Projects: Claudia Joskowicz, Flash: Allan deSouza, Barbara Morgan: Body Montage.
