

Money doesn't belong down the drain...

Save money by reducing the quantity and strength of your wastewater discharge

The City of Riverside is offering incentives to restaurants for up to 50% of the cost to install grease interceptors or similar FOG control technology, up to $150,000 per year per customer.

City of Arts & Innovation

Public Works Department
5950 Acorn Street
Riverside, CA 92504

City of Arts & Innovation

Fats, Oils and Grease (FOG) are a primary cause of sewer overflows and blockages. Restaurants and other food service establishments are the largest potential contributors of FOG.

Existing restaurants that predate the required installation of FOG control technology are eligible for incentives.

For eligibility requirements and more information contact the SBP Program Administrator at 826-5311 or RiversideCa.gov/sewer