Suspect Arrested in Connection to a Vehicle Burglary

Riverside, CA – On Wednesday, July 28, 2010, detectives and officers from the Riverside Police Department North Neighborhood Policing Center arrested a suspect in connection to a vehicle burglary that occurred at Don's Lock & Lock in the City of Riverside.

The investigation led detectives to the 7900 block of Magnolia Avenue where the stolen property from the vehicle burglary was observed inside a vehicle. The owner of the vehicle was detained and a search warrant was obtained.

During the service of the search warrant, detectives recovered several thousand dollars worth of locksmith tools, power tools and two shotguns. Detectives also recovered various burglary tools, two-way radios and night vision goggles.

Anyone with information pertaining to this on-going investigation is asked to contact Detective D. Koehler at (951) 826-8718.
