Teens Arrested in Thefts of Holiday Décor from Riverside Homes – Additional Victims Identified

Riverside, CA -- On Wednesday, December 30, 2009, officers from the Riverside Police Department arrested three juveniles for their involvement with the theft of holiday decorative lawn displays.

Five property owners were identified during the initial investigation and their property returned. Detectives have received approximately thirty-five phone calls in response to the initial press release. Eleven victims have met with detectives and reunited with their property. Detectives are continuing their investigation to identify additional victims.

Residents who believe they were victims are encouraged to contact Detective Collopy at 951-826-8718.
