Volunteer officers wait tables for schools

Memorial fundraiser supports elementary programs at RUSD schools

 TONIGHT, Wed., AUG 1 – 6-9 p.m. ***

Riverside, CA -- Riverside Police Department officers are volunteering as waiters tonight at Raxx Barbecue Restaurant for "Tip To the Cause," in support of REEF, the Riverside Elementary Education Foundation.

The restaurant fundraiser is in memory of the late Mrs. Natalie Cole-Reagins, a teacher at Emerson Elementary in the Riverside Unified School District, who died of cancer.

The Raxx fundraiser will see 15% of tonight's proceeds, as well as gratuities left for the serving officers, directed to REEF, in support of elementary school programs.

Raxx Barbecue Restaurant is located at 3397 Mission Inn Ave. (at Lemon St.) in Downtown Riverside (tel: 784-2739).

The Riverside Police Department officers, volunteering on their own time, will be serving customers from 6 p.m. to 9 p.m., Wednesday evening, August 1, 2007.
