Fatal Traffic Collision

Riverside, Ca – On Sunday August 26, 2007, at approximately 2:10 am officers responded to a reported vehicle into a block wall near the intersection of Grand and Mountain View. Upon the officer's arrival, they found both the driver and the passenger of the vehicle being treated for injuries. Both vehicle occupants were transported to local hospitals for treatment.

The preliminary investigation determined the vehicle was being driven at a high rate of speed when the driver lost control and collided with the block wall. The 36-year-old female driver of the vehicle sustained major injuries and died a short time later at the hospital. The 41-year-old passenger was treated for minor injuries and expected to recover. The investigation is ongoing. The name of the deceased is being withheld pending notification to the family and will be released by the Coroners Office.

Anyone with information regarding this collision is encouraged to contact the Riverside Police Department Traffic Division at (951) 353-7978.
