Juvenile Robbery Suspects Arrested

Riverside, CA -- On November 1, 2008 around 9 PM, officers were sent to a robbery that had just occurred at the Radio Shack located at 3907 Chicago Avenue. Three young males robbed the store using a screwdriver.

One of the responding officers, Officer Cedric Disla, spotted three suspects matching the description fleeing the area on bicycles. He lost sight of them as they hid in a nearby neighborhood.

Officer Disla searched with assisting officers and he located two of the juvenile suspects nearby. One was positively identified by the victim and the other admitted his involvement in the robbery.

Both were male juveniles from the east side of Riverside; both were booked into Juvenile Hall for Robbery.
