Two Men Arrested

RIVERSIDE, CA – On February 10, 2009, Riverside Police and Corrections Team (PACT) members received information concerning the potential whereabouts of a parolee-at-large. The parolee-at-large was identified as Miseal Angel Corral, a 30-year-old Moreno Valley resident. Mr. Corral was believed to be in the company of a subject on formal adult probation identified as Leon Lee Perez, 32 of Riverside.

PACT members assisted by investigators from the Moreno Valley Regional Gang Task Force, conducted a probation search at 3533 Bandini Avenue, Riverside. Mr. Corral and Mr. Perez were contacted after they were found hiding in a detached structure on the property. Both men were placed under arrest for charges related to the recovery of three (3) loaded handguns that were found during the search of the location.

Both men were booked into Riverside County Jail for charges related to the possession of firearms and violations of their parole and probation terms.
