Adult Female Victim Leads To Attempted Homicide Investigation

Riverside, CA – On January 12, 2009 at 9:36 a.m. officers from the Riverside Police Department responded to the 2900 block of University Avenue, after the Department's Communication Center received a call of an unresponsive adult female located in a homeless encampment.

Upon the officers' arrival they discovered that the adult female had a severe head wound. Emergency medical personnel responded and transported the female victim to Riverside Community Hospital for treatment. After several hours of treatment the victim was transported to Riverside County Regional Medical Center where she is listed in critical condition. The victim's identity is not being released at this time.

Homicide and Crime Scene Investigators responded to the scene to assist with the investigation. At this time it is unknown who caused the victim's injury, or what type of object the victim may have been struck with. There is no additional information available at this time.

Anyone who believes they may have information pertaining to this incident should contact Detective Rick Wheeler (951) 353-7134, or Detective Rick Cobb (951) 353-7135.
