Man Found With Gun Shot Wounds

Riverside, CA – On Tuesday, November 24, 2009 at 5:26 p.m. officers from the Riverside Police Department responded to the 7200 block of Marguerita Avenue after receiving reports of gun shots being heard in area.

Upon the officers' arrival a Hispanic adult male was found in the parking lot of Villegas Park, suffering from several gun shot wounds to the upper torso. Emergency medical personnel responded and transported the victim to Riverside Community Hospital where he was pronounced dead. The victim's identity will be released by the Riverside County Coroners Office.

At this point it is unknown why the shooting occurred, or who shot the victim. The suspect fled the location prior to the officers arriving on scene.

Homicide Investigators responded and were assisted in their investigation by personnel from the Department's Forensic Unit.

Anyone with information pertaining to this homicide should contact Detective Rick Cobb (951) 353-7135, or Detective Rich Wheeler (951) 353-7134.
