Public's assistance needed in identifying robbery suspects

Riverside, CA – On January 23, 2011, at approximately 7:30 PM, the Riverside Police Department's Communication Center received a call of an armed robbery that just occurred at 19009 Van Buren Blvd (Boba Loca) in the City of Riverside. Upon the officers' arrival at the business, they discovered the suspect had already fled from the immediate area on foot.

The suspect entered the business through the front door and approached an employee cleaning. The suspect pointed a handgun at the employee and ordered the employee, along with an additional employee to remove cash from the register. The suspect then ordered both employees towards the rear of the business into the restroom. The suspect fled the location on foot.

The Riverside Police Department is seeking the public's assistance in identifying this suspect. Video of the suspect entering the business can be viewed at the link listed: <http://www.youtube.com/user/RPDCrimeVideos#p/u/1/IOpVFsfce7k>

Anyone with information that may help identify the suspect should contact Detective Rick Wheeler at (951) 353-7134.
