DOMESTIC VIOLENCE SUSPECT ARRESTED Suspect attacked victim and neighbor with a knife

RIVERSIDE, CA – On February 15th, 2016, an ex-boyfriend approached a female victim outside her home on Freeport Street in the Orangecrest area of Riverside, and accosted her with a knife. The female, fearing for her life, attempted to run away from the subject who began stabbing her multiple times in the head. A neighbor, and good samaritan who saw what was going on, attempted to help the female, only to also get attacked by the assailant. The neighbor also received stab wounds to his head, before they both fled to an adjoining street. The Riverside Police Department responded to the request for help and surrounded the area. Both victims were transported to local hospitals with serious, but non-life threatening wounds. The Riverside Police Department requested the aid of their SWAT team, helicopter, and canine team to aid in the investigation into the whereabouts of the suspect. During the search for the suspect, identified as Jose Luis Aguirre Munoz, 30 years old from Corona, attempted to flee after hearing the SWAT team officers and police canine approach. The suspect was placed under arrest by the search team and booked into a local jail. The suspect was arrested and booked under multiple charges including domestic violence, and attempted murder.
