

RIVERSIDE INSECT FAIR

CELEBRATING
Earth
DAY

CALL FOR POEMS

Insects – ooh or eeew? However you feel about them, there's no denying that insects are an important link in the human food chain. From providing sustenance to pollinating plants, our future—and the future of our Earth—relies on them.

THIS YEAR, ON EARTH DAY, INVEST IN OUR PLANET—WRITE A POEM!

Inlandia Institute and Riverside Insect Fair invite you to submit up to three poems inspired by insects. Selected poems will be invited to be read during the Insect Fair.

HOW TO SUBMIT

Include up to three poems in one Word document that includes the author's name, phone number, email address, and age.

Each poem should fit on a single side of an 8.5"x11" (standard size) piece of paper, in a standard size font like Times New Roman 12 pt.

Visit RiversideInsectFair.com for a link to the submission portal.

Poems written by a minor must be submitted by a parent or guardian.

DEADLINE | April 15, 2023

Two poems will be selected from each of three age categories:

- Under 12
- 13-17
- 18+

Selected poets must be available to attend the fair in person and read their poem on stage on Earth Day, April 22, 2023.

Additionally, select poems may be published on the website or in a related publication.
