City of Riverside General Plan Update and Climate Action and Adaptation Plan Virtual Workshop on July 8th

Make your voice heard on issues facing the City of Riverside!

RIVERSIDE, Calif. – The City of Riverside is continuing the General Plan Update (GPU) & Climate Action and Adaptation Plan (CAAP), a long-term effort to guide growth, sustainability, and quality of life through 2050.

Community members are invited to attend a virtual workshop focused on the CAAP to learn about the Plan's process, progress to date, and greenhouse gas reduction and climate adaptation measures that support a more sustainable and resilient future for Riverside.

Virtual CAAP Workshop

July 8, 2026 | 6 PM - 7:30 PM

Spanish and ASL interpretations will be provided.

In addition to the workshop, we encourage you to participate in several online engagement opportunities now available at www.Riverside2050.com.

CAAP Development Survey

Take a short survey that asks what actions you support. Your feedback will help prioritize which actions the City should focus on. Take the CAAP Development Survey Here.

Future Land Use Scenarios

Explore the interactive viewer here featuring three draft land use scenarios that illustrate different approaches to future growth, housing, innovation, mobility, and connectivity throughout Riverside.

After exploring the scenarios, take a short survey here to share your thoughts and help evaluate key ideas and priorities reflected in each approach. Community feedback will help shape and refine the City's future land use direction.
